

RATTLESNAKE RIDGE GOLF CLUB

No. 11

HOLE No. 11 PAR four YARDS 432

After a good drive, this is the second shot facing you on this difficult par 4 dogleg right. A large stand of trees off the tee makes it important to aim up the left side of the fairway, which also gives the best angle to hit to the green. Trees and bunkers guard both sides of the putting surface, making this a challenging and memorable second shot of 160 yards or more.

This big green is hard to read, with some putts of 50 feet or more.
