This year's series of five wine-tasting events kicks off with the wares of a centuries-old Italian wine-making business and ends with a preview night showcasing the new entries on next season's wine list. These popular get-togethers chase off the season's chill with warmth and camaraderie as well as offering an easy opportunity to try a variety of wines. Imported and domestic cheeses and fresh fruit are included in the cost. Chef's Specials will be available after the event, as well as items on the regular menu. The events start at 7 pm.
